Hamlet

by William Shakespeare
 Directed by Emily Mattina, Hamlet is presented as a black and white movie from the first half of the 20th Century written and directed by the title character and happening in his mind, complete with flashbacks, flash-forwards, and a sense of tragedy heightened by music.

List Price $1100

Hamlet, 2008

The Jungle Book

by Rudyard Kipling, adapted by Dan Ciba
 In a world where man and animal uneasily co-exist, three actors inhabit the creatures of the jungle to tell the story of Mowgli the man-cub. Emily Mattina has expertly crafted this production to wrap together theatre, puppetry, dance, live music, American Sign Language, and Kipling's themes of respecting your teachers and learning to learn.

List Price $975

The Lion, The Witch, and The Wardrobe

by C.S. Lewis adapted by le Clanché du Rand
 The magical and imaginative journey into the world of Narnia, packed with exciting action and wonderful dialogue, simultaneously entertains and educates. The performance of this C.S. Lewis classic encourages reading, imagination, critical thinking, and character development. Interactive pre-show and talk-back sessions with the audience emphasize the importance of honesty, integrity, and treating others as you, yourself, would like to be treated.

List Price $975

Interactive Workshop Series

Shakespeare • Folklore • Mythology & much more
 Two actors demonstrate a honed teaching style to make the text accessible to all students as the class performs scenes together in their classroom.

List Price $975
 for day of 5 Workshops
